The specific nature of commercial real estate transactions may differ, but efficient, reliable service remains a constant priority on every file our commercial real estate team works on. Wendy shares this commitment to dependable service and is proud to contribute to our productive group and, ultimately, the success of our clients.

As an experienced paralegal, Wendy understands that clients benefit most when our lawyers can focus solely on providing timely, expert legal guidance. To help facilitate this, Wendy assists our lawyers with a variety of tasks, including legal due diligence, document preparation, research, and coordinating commercial real estate closings. In addition to her experience in transactions, Wendy is well versed in the BC Land Title Registration requirements and often assists with complex Land Title Office submissions.
